

Australia's Sunshine State has a bright future

Liquefied Natural Gas

Queensland has successfully built a world leading natural gas industry that's generating jobs, investment and royalties for the State.

Every LNG ship coming into Gladstone is forecast to generate more than $1 million in payments to the state of Queensland.

Natural gas is driving Queensland's economic surge. From farming to manufacturing, industries across the State are already benefiting from the economic growth the natural gas industry is generating.