

the voice of australia's oil and gas industry

Don't let Australia lose $40 billion a year in exports.

Natural Gas in all its forms is Australia's next resource boom and will fuel our economy for decades to come. It will earn our country $40 billion a year in extra exports. But that future success is threatened by people who don't care enough about losing Australian jobs and investment. So help defend and secure a brighter future for Australia at:
